

EAT = EARTH

April 17, 2010

Republic Square Park

9am to 1pm

FREE

<www.austinearthday.com>

2009 FEATURES:

- promoted as part of EARTH WEEK
- $40,000 of promotion on ClearChannel, The CW, and Austin Chronicle
- 2,000 attendees
- 50 booth exhibitors

BENEFITS:

- Onsite sampling and vendor space
- provide content for stage announcements
- name listed on event website
- 10'x 10' exhibitor space

EXHIBITOR INFO:

Green Business (link to see restrictions)
 Non-profit

	By March 1	After March 1
	$250	$300
	$100	$200

TO APPLY -- contact: RANDY JEWART, 743 4245, <randy@austingreenart.org>

RESTRICTIONS: Prepared foods of all kinds, root beer, hibiscus tea, coffee, Italian ices, ice cream, baked goods, soap, jewelry, dog treats, dog clothing, organic baby / children's clothing, t-shirts hand made or otherwise, garden articles/decorations, knife holders, wooden cooking implements, massage therapist

BRING: your pop-up tent, your chairs, your table, your signage, your water. This event is a grass-roots community celebration of Earth Day -- NOT a commercial green business fair. Bring you cooperation and your "roll-with-it" attitude. Help make the event fun and educational!

